

Boys & Girls Club of Greater Lowell Appoints Mill City Environmental President, Brian Chapman New Chairman of the Board

Lowell, MA—Sept. 28 – Mill City Environmental announced today that its President and CEO, Brian Chapman was appointed as the new Chairman of the Board of the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Lowell.

“We are proud to appoint Brian Chapman as Board Chairman,” said Joe Hungler, Executive Director of the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Lowell. “Brian is such an experienced industry professional, and he has also been a fixture at the Club, donating his time and talents as a mentor to the kids and our immediate past Vice Chair of the Board.”

The mission of the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Lowell is: To inspire and enable young people, especially those who need us most, to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens through dedicated staff and innovative programs, provided in a safe environment. With a focus on three core areas of youth development, the Club provides educational, social, recreational and cultural programming for youth ages 7-18.

“This is a special honor for me, because I grew up as a ‘Club Kid’ myself, and attended the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Lowell when I was a student, so it is quite a privilege to help direct and guide the Club as Chairman of the Board,” said Brian Chapman, Club Chair and president of Mill City Environmental Corporation.

Chapman is currently very active in the Lowell Community, and was nominated most recently as the Lowell Sun’s 2014 “Man of the Year.” He is also on the Boards of the Lowell Cemetery, Lowell Collegiate Charter School, March of Dimes (Chair of their Signature Chefs Auction this October 2015); Lowell Parks and Conservation Trust; Greater Lowell Community Foundation; and Catie's Closet.

About Mill City Environmental:

Today, MCE is a thriving, award-winning small business with 46 employees that serves federal, commercial and private sector clients in 17 states in the New England, Mid Atlantic, South and Southwestern territories. The key to the company's success is based upon Chapman's philosophy to service each customer with a personalized collaborative approach that produces exceptional results and long-lasting relationships.

CONTACT:

Tomeeka Farrington

617.423.0040

Tomeeka@spotlightcommunications.net